Four Men Lose Lives By Gas in Wells

Fatalities Occur at Mellowdale and Tofield Towns

Edmonton, Sept. 7.—At two p.m. on Sunday Thomas Lewis, George Coughlan and Elbert Christ, all lost their lives from gas fumes in an empty well at Mellowdale, about 30 miles northwest of Edmonton. From the information supplied by Inspector Piper it appears that Lewis, who farmed some two and a half miles north of Mellowdale, was in the habit of keeping a supply of fresh meat down the shaft of a dry well 45 feet deep, and on this occasion had gone to the well with his nephew, George Coughlan, for the purpose of getting the meat, but the rope to which it was attached broke and the meat fell to the bottom of the shaft, whereupon Lewis went down to recover it.

As he did not return, Coughlan then went down to find out what was the matter, but he too failed to come to the surface again.

Mrs. Coughlan, becoming alarmed, went for help and returned with a neighbor named Elbert Christ, who also descended the well but also failed to come to the surface again.

Again Mrs. Coughlan went for help and returned with a number of the neighbors, one of whom lowered a lighted lantern into the well, the light going out owing to the gas, at a distance of ten feet from the surface.

Burning hay was then introduced into the well for the purpose of clearing out the gas, and when this was accomplished the bodies were brought to the surface, all the men being dead.

The second fatality happened on Monday at about 1.40 p.m., when James Easton, of Tofield, lost his life in a similar manner. The accident took place ten miles west of Tofield, where the deceased man was drilling a well. The drill stuck when about 45 feet from the surface, and in order to free it Mr. Easton went down the shaft but was overcome by the deadly fumes of gas, and when brought to the surface was found to be dead.

Canadian Trade With Britain

London, Sept. 4.—The amount of business now between Canada and England is unprecedented, said Sir George MacLaren Brown, European manager of the Canadian Pacific Ocean services today. "Never before in history has there been such a volume of commerce. Every ship is loaded to the guard rails. There is no sufficient tonnage to cope with the business, and thousands of Canadian, including business men and relatives of soldiers who died or were injured in France, are coming monthly from Canada en route to France. There are even greater numbers desiring to go to Canada from England. Many Englishmen evidently see Canada as the great land of promise, full of potential wealth, and they want to get from the overcrowded mother country."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 12

THE GLORY OF SOLOMON'S REIGN

I. The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon (vv. 1-2).

Her visit was the result of Solomon's widespread fame. That which made him famous was:

1. The extent of his kingdom (4: 21-25). He ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates river to the Mediterranean sea, except the Philistines, but they were in alliance with him. This was the nearest to the realization of the Divine promise (Gen. 15:18), that Israel ever enjoyed, but the fullness of the promised possession shall be realized when the Greater than Solomon is King.

2. His great wisdom (1: 29-34). It excelled that of the Chaldeans, Persians and Egyptians (vv. 30, 31). None of his contemporaries approached him in knowledge. He had a singularly comprehensive mind. He was (1) a moral philosopher—think 3,000 parables (2) a poet—his songs were a thousand and five (3) a botanist—he spoke of trees from the cedar tree that is Lebanon even to the hyacinth that springs out of the wall (4) a zoologist—he spoke of beasts and fowl, and of the creeping things and of fishes. He was superior in intellect to any of his own or any other age.

3. The temple (chs. 5 and 6). This was an exact reproduction of the tabernacle, a high and double altar, in marble and in gold. The amount of labor, skill and money expended on the building was exceedingly great (1 Chron. 22:14-16). Never before had such a costly structure ever appeared.

4. Royal palaces adjoining the temple (2 Chron. 9:1-10:1). Following the erection of the temple he began the building of his own house. He was nearly twice as long in building this as in building the Lord's house (1 Chron. 22:14-16). His house (9: 26-28; 2 Chron. 9:10-11). His trading ships went east as far as the Indian ocean, perhaps even to India; and west as far as Spain.

5. Army and navy (10: 26-29; 2 Chron. 9:27). Such wealth and greatness would at some time provoke opposition, so he put his nation into a state of preparedness.

All this greatness was associated with the name of the Lord. It was known that his fame was due to his relationship with the living God. No one ever had a greater missionary opportunity than he. Wealth and knowledge had not made him forget the God of his fathers, but he had turned to the extension of the cause of Christ.

II. The Queen of Sheba Astonished (vv. 3-9).

After the interview in which Solomon answered all her questions, which was overwhelmed with his great wisdom. She had paid him his hire with the precious stones, gold, silver, and spices, and found that the half had not been told her.

III. The Queen of Sheba Gives Gifts to Solomon (vv. 10-12).

As was the custom, she brought gifts to Solomon, the king, the gold of which was in value between three and four million dollars. Several boxes of spices were also brought. It was a large gift for that time, but Solomon more than recompensed her. He gave her all she desired and in addition, of his royal bounty. While her gift to him was great, his to her was greater, even in keeping with his possessions. God gives us to them who give their hearts unto him exceeding abundantly above all they ask or think (Eph. 3:20).

IV. All the Earth Sought Solomon (vv. 22-26).

His fame spread all over the earth so that the people came to hear his wisdom which God gave to him. They came with their gifts of silver, gold, garments, spices, horses and mules, so that silver came to be as common in Jerusalem as stone. There is a time coming when the greater than Solomon shall be King over all the earth, and then all the people of the earth shall come to him with their gifts, and he shall give unto them of his royal bounty. Happy indeed, will be those who give their hearts unto him and give their allegiance to him!

British Empire Exhibition

Will Probably be Held in London Some Time in 1923

Capt. Evan J. Edwards, senior trade commissioner for Great Britain in Canada and Newfoundland, stated that he had ample information in regard to the proposed British Empire Exhibition, which will probably be held in London, England, some time in 1923. Captain Edwards has been asked to interest possible exhibitors in Canada and Newfoundland in the scheme, and expressed the hope that Canadian firms would take part in the matter, more especially as the exhibition had been initiated by a Canadian, the late Lord Strathcona.

Mineral Wealth of Quebec

Discoveries in North Country Are Becoming Richer

H. L. Blake, representing several English syndicates, who has been exploring Chibougamau and Northern Quebec with a party arrived recently in Montreal on his way down the North Shore to make further explorations in Ungava. Mr. Blake reports that the mineral discoveries in the north are becoming richer and richer on each occasion he visits the interior of the country, and predicts that the day is not far distant when the large steel interests will look to Northern Quebec for their raw material. The enormous water power will supplant coal in the production of iron and steel and will make Quebec one of the richest parts of the Dominion, if not of all America, from the mineral point of view.

Will Purchase Land In Alberta

British Farmers, Will Also Buy Winter Residence In Vancouver

A group of nine English agriculturists whose ancestors have farmed for generations near Manchester, have been in the city for a few days to inspect Alberta farming lands, with a view to purchasing a section each for the sixteen families they are representing. They did not come to British Columbia expecting to purchase land, but have been so delighted with their trip that it is their intention to buy a residence in Vancouver, where members of the party will visit during the winter months.

On the advice of their bankers, the visitors brought $2,000 each with them, leaving the remainder of their money on deposit in England, in the hope that the exchange situation would improve before they paid for their farms in the new world.

Canadian Wool in Demand

Almost Two Million Pounds Sold By Co-Operative Buyers

Over one and three-quarter million pounds of Canadian wool of the 1920 clip has already been disposed of by the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers, Ltd. All of this wool has been sold on a graded basis at prices ranging from 24 to 60 cents a pound depending upon grade, character, soundness and cleanliness.

The sales have been about evenly divided between eastern and western wool and approximately one-half of the quantity sold has gone to Canadian mills, according to W. H. J. Tisdale, formerly a professor at the University of Saskatchewan and now associated with the Co-operative Wool Growers.

"Until recently," said Mr. Tisdale, "Canadian wools have been much prejudiced against Canadian-grown wool, claiming that it was simply a conglomerate of reject stuff put up in baggy fashion, with no attention given to its quality. It was on the sheep's back or at shearing time. Conditions today are vastly different, and the Canadian mill man is realizing that for certain purposes just as good wool is being raised in this country as elsewhere. This realization is evidenced by the increased demand each season for Canadian wool, and the fact that men who have once purchased the graded product, come back to it a thousand times."

Away With Depression and Melancholy—These two evils are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and mean wretchedness to all whom they visit. The surest and speediest way to combat them is with Parmenter's Vegetable Pills, which will restore the healthful action of the stomach and bring relief. They have proved their usefulness in thousands of cases and will continue to do so until the suffering who are wise enough to use them.

Women's New Status

Ratification by the legislature of Tennessee of the amendment to the constitution of the United States extending equal suffrage to women, is noteworthy in that it made the 36th State to approve of the amendment, and consequently made possible the promulgation of the new constitution as binding upon the whole nation.

As a result between 15,000, 000 and 20,000,000 women will be added to the list of qualified voters in the presidential elections next November. In other words, there will be in the neighborhood of 40, 000,000 eligible voters in the United States, a number unequalled in any other country.

What effect this large enfranchisement of new voters will have on the fortunes of the Republican and Democratic parties it is difficult to say. The probability is that in this first election, the women will, as a general rule, vote the same ticket as their men folk, but as the years go by and women develop an aptitude for public affairs and a distinct political consciousness, it is altogether likely that marked changes will be effected in party policies and methods.

The innovation will be for the good of the country and the world, because, naturally, the votes of the people of other parts of the world will appeal more strongly to the women than they appear to have done to the big financial and commercial interests of the United States dominated by men judged by the treatment afforded the peace treaty and the League of Nations. There will probably be less war in the future, more humanitarian feelings in American politics of the future.

PURITY - QUALITY - ECONOMY

With the increased cost of labor and materials due to war conditions, it is not reasonable to suppose that a really first class baking powder can be made and sold at the old prices. Rather than sacrifice the quality of we found it necessary to make slight increases in price during the war period. Even though Magic Baking Powder may cost a few cents more than the ordinary kinds it is still by far the most economical baking powder on the market to-day when purity, strength and leavening qualities are taken into consideration.

Faith Cures

Sensitiveness of the Mind A Determining Factor in Respect To Health

There is nothing new in the cure reported through the medium of the "bleeding sacred statues" at Templemore, Ireland. St. Anne De Beaupre, Quebec, is a shrine at which thousands are said to be cured every year. These are faith cures, and for certain ailments, such cures are neither strange nor unusual. Reversely, a perfectly well man may be made to feel ill by him that he looks upon as a saint. The sensitiveness of the mind is often a determining factor in respect to sick and health. But the only sure way of curing disease is to consult a competent doctor and to follow his advice and the word "doctor" does not necessarily mean the medical profession only.—Calgary Herald.

Buckhorn

The kind friends of Buckhorn will be very glad to learn that the roadways, we understand, 2 miles east and north of Rimber, through these wretched swamps are being opened up by the Department of Lacombe, and it is expected that a month's work will make the road passable.

It makes one feel good to see the Bludman Valley Railway Co. making such strides in laying the rails, etc., and also the telephone being pushed forward. After all, it seems as if Buckhorn from the land of the living instead of back in the hills—all these are great signs of progress. No we all hope the good work may go on.

Many turned out to hear Mr. Cashely, and friends he preached a sermon well worth hearing. So let us hope a few more will come forward to hear this reverend gentleman, and it almost makes you feel like rejecting to see and hear our Sunday School, and one feels quite proud of the boys and girls showing such interest and taking their part so well.

This time the wildwoods will ring with laughter and song. Why? Buckhorn's kind friends are filling their baskets with cranberries and huckleberries, and so farmers' wives all way the city folks could join in the picking, as this year there seems to be berries enough for all and even the little birds have a share of the berries that our good Master has so kindly sent us all.

Cheer up! Buckhorn friends. If the straw from the waving grain is desperately short, there may be a good supply of grain, so don't feel too down hearted.

Mrs. L. Prizel spent Thursday in Rimber renewing old acquaintances and inspecting her new home. So next week the van will be moving their goods to town, so may good luck go along with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cris Collins drove to Ponoka last Wednesday. Mr. Collins intends to spend a few months there, and am sure he will be missed by all Buckhorn friends.

We are very glad to see Mr. Twiss around again after a sick spell in the house. Ray Strauss and brother spent a few days visiting our sick friend last week. It's good to feel "Every cloud has a silver lining."

Please remember that Mr. Cashely will be with us at Crystal Spring schoolhouse, Sunday, Sept. 12, at three o'clock.
